Same Sex Marriage

01/16/2015

This NEWS FLASH is being issued to inform staff that same sex marriages are now legally recognized in the State of Arizona. Same sex partners are considered spouses for all programs when the marriage is legally recognized where the marriage occurred.

Staff must ensure the correct relationship is used when keying information in AZTECS or entering information into HEAplus. This allows correct budgeting of income for same sex spouses and ensures any necessary referrals are made.
