JP Morgan Chase Bank has modified the section of this brochure that explains the fees associated with the Arizona Quest Cards. It is very important that we provide customers with correct information, which is explained in this brochure.

Effective immediately use the FAA-1045B brochures that have the bright blue frame around the picture of the Arizona Quest card in the upper left hand corner of the document. The blue frame around the picture of the Quest Card is an easy way to tell that you are using the correct and new version of this brochure.

Staff should not use and must destroy any existing stock of the FAA-1045B brochures and replace them with the new versions. The staff responsible for ordering office supplies should order the new stock of these brochures from the DES Warehouse immediately.

The new version of the brochure is currently available for ordering from the DES Warehouse and should be ordered as soon as possible. Staff may also print the brochure from the DES Digital Library until the new supply is received.
